MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

The anticipations of an early fall trade are not, so far, being realized, but hone is still expressed that a better time is coming. Business generally continues languid, though there has been some improvement in the grain trade, the demand continues steady, and prices keep up protty well. Monetary affairs hereabouts are unimproved, the scarcity of money being as great as ever, and loans only effected upon the most approved security. The Baltimore papers report that the demand for money there does not increase to any appreciable extent, and the market continues in the same condition as before reported. Londers hold rates up to former figures, partly in expectation of a better enquiry as the season advances and partly from the feeling that a reduction would not lead to any increase of business. Security is still the most prominent consideration in the market. Leans are made at 4.5 per cent, and discounts range from 4½ to 6, the former for best known names only. Money in New York rebetter enquiry as the season advances and partmains easy and in abundant supply at 1s2 per cent on call. The rates of discount and the movements in currency in the Philadelphia market are sluggish and unsatisfactory. Business is dull, and little good paper is presented. The demand for gold is light, and the rate during the week has been 1 per cent, scarcely ever fluctuating. Government bonds, while quiet remain firm, with a good enquiry for the 4 per cents. State securities are quiet. Virginia consols sold yesterday in Baltimore at 51; coupons at 781a782, and peelers at 20. There were sales also of Norfolk city 8s at 1113. Railroad securities are dull, with sales of B. & O. dividend serip at 87. Manassas 7s sold at 48a40, against sales at 471 on Wednesday. The market to-day was steady and active, and prices were firm. Flour is without change, and the transactions, in consequence of the light receipts, are limited. Wheat is in good receipt and prices are firm; the offerings to-day amounted to 5160 bushels, and sales ranged from 98 to 106, as to quality. Corn is quiet and firm, and 200 bushels, all that was offered, brought 58. There were small offerings of Ryo and Outs, but no sales were reported. Butter and Eggs are scarce and higher. Other articles unchanged.

RICHMOND MARKET, August 22. -The market for Flour is dull and prices weak, the quotations being from $3 for fine to $6 for fancy trands. The receipts of grain are only fair, the cilerings of Wheat to day amounting to about about 0000 bushels, with sales at 102a108 for white, and 90a110 for red of common to choice quality. Nothing doing in Corn, and quotations nominal. Sales of Oats at 32. Nothing doing in Bye and none offering.

LYNCHBURG MARKET, Aug. 22.—The market is somewhat improved in tone. Flour continues inactive at 3 25a 56 for line to family brands. In Wheat there is some improvement in prices, and the market is slightly more active; quotations 75alCO for ordinary to prime. Corn is only in moderate request at 60a63 for white, and 552 57 for mixed. Oats are coming in more freely, but the demand is limited, and the quotations are 25a26 for spring, and 28a30 for winter. Nothing doing in Rye, which is nominally 58.62.

FREDERICKSBURG MARKET, August 22 -The market is quiet. Flour dull, with fair stocks; Super 4 25a$4 50; Extra 5 25a$5 50, and Family 6a$6 25. Wheat in fair receipt at 80a107 for ordinary to choice. Corn scarco at 54a56; Rye 52 a56, with but very limited receipts. Cats quiet

BALTIMORE SUGAR AND COFFEE MARKET .-Sugars-We Lear of no transactions in Sugars since the sales reported two or three days since, but the market continues steady, and we still here now 3378 hhds, 1044 boxes and 548 bags. Collec-We write the market for Collec steady and firm, with a good jebbing demand, but business in round lots is restricted by the want of stock to operate in, there being only some 1200 bags Rio bers in first hands, and no further ar-vivals are expected for some time, and the stock in second hands is only offering in the jobbing way. The Rio advices report a very firm market there, and the market here is certainly in a very strong position. We, however, still quote as follows, viz:

Rio, ordinary 14a141e; fair 1614161e; good do 163a17c; prime 174a171e per 1b, all gold, 60 days.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, Aug. 22, 1878. Reeves-About 725 of the receipts, among them the best, were re-shipped to New York and Philadelphia before the market, but found no etter prices than ours, those markets showing no improvement over the previous week. Sheep and Lambs-The receipts have been

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE AT MANASSAS. -From some cause we have failed to receive our expected report of the Teachers' Institute proceedings for the past two days. We learn from a gentleman who was present, however, that the proceedings continue to be of great interest, and that more than a lundred and fifty teachers and school officers are in atten-

Oa Wednesday evening Joseph M. Wilson, era., of Washington, delivered an address on 'lodustrial Education,' and on that and Thursday afternoon essays were read by Miss Lucy V. Walters, of Warren, who exhibited a wonderful ease and self possession under the trying ordeal; Mr. Moore, of Canada; Mr. Charles Pritohard, of Fauquier, and Mr. J. Gildea Woolts, of the same county, whose fine elecution made his reading doubly effective. Superintendent Little read an essay for a lady of his county, and Mr. J. J. Davies, a poem composed by another. A permanent organization was effected with view to holding similar meetings every year in the different counties represented, under the title of "The Teachers' Institute of Northern Virginia," and a strong resolution, declaring that the public schools were in danger of destruction in consequence of the failure of the State to apportion the school mouey received from the counties, and calling upon the people to instruct their representatives immediately to find a sure and speedy remedy, was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Richard L. Carne requests us to say that he did not lecture on "looking glasses" at Manassas, having a very slight acquaintance with that article. He only held the mirror up before the teachers to enable them to see their defects and failings, in a short address which he called "The Teachers' Looking Glass."

BISHOP KEANE, - As heretofore noticed in the Gazette the most extensive preparations are being made for the consecration of Rev. J. J. Keane, as Bishop of Richmond, which ceremony takes place in that city on Sunday next. They will leave on the special excursion train to morrow night at 11 o'clock. The spleadid outlit for the bishop elect, made and presented by the ladies of St. Patrick's parish, of Washington, where Father Keane was lately stationed, has been received in Richmond.

Bishop Gross, of Savannah, has been in Richmond for several days. The other Bishops present will be Bishop Moore, of St. Augustice. Fla.; and Bishop Foley, of Unicago. Bishop Quinlan, of Mobile, Ala., will be present unless the presence of the yellow fever should keep avoidably prevented.

During the ceremonics the Bishop elect will occupy St. Joseph's aliar, on the west side of the Cathedral. Father Walter, paster of St. Patrick's Church, Washington, and the former superior of Father Keane, will be assistant priest; Father Van de Vever, et Harper's 100 MILES RIDE ON THE POTOMAC Ferry, deaven; Rev. A patent has been taken out for a process of treating eggs that have been preserved in solution, which will obviate their liability to burst upon boiling. It consists in piercing a small hole in the egg shell, over the air blister, in such a way as not to pass through the cuticle enveloping the egg, which is next to the shell. Eggs packed in May and kept until the following winter, if well preserved, will by this treatment bring the same price as recently laid eggs, because of their non liability to burst the shell in boiling.

Much alarm has been produced in the northeastern portion of Washington city, by a reported case of yellow fever. The health officer promptly visited the premises and reports merely a case of malarial fever in the family of a citizen of Memphis, who left there more than a month ago, and who had recently returned from Philadelphia.
